

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

STAFF ATTORNEY POSITION

Central California Appellate Program (CCAP) has a staff attorney position open for an attorney with a deep interest in criminal law and appellate practice.

The position offers an opportunity to work with a highly committed staff whose goal is to maintain and improve the quality of representation of indigent appellate representation by selecting, assisting, and training the panel of attorneys who provide the bulk of the direct representation in the Third and Fifth District Court of Appeal. The direct representation not handled by the panel is provided by CCAP staff attorneys. Our role also includes providing administrative assistance to both courts. Detailed information about our organization is available on our website: www.capcentral.org.

Entry salary depends on experience. Excellent benefits package.

Please send two opening briefs or writs (or equivalent writing samples), a resume, and references no later than March 31, 2020. In your cover letter please describe your interest and qualifications for the staff attorney position (your practice areas, seminars attended, articles written, computer skills).
