

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY – STAFF ATTORNEY POSITION

Central California Appellate Program (CCAP) is seeking an experienced criminal appellate attorney interested in assisting court-appointed counsel of all levels who represent indigent defendants on appeal. (More detailed information about our organization is available at www.capcentral.org.) We offer a hybrid work environment but will consider a fully remote schedule under exceptional circumstances.

Job Responsibilities

- Train and guide a panel of attorneys appointed by the Third and Fifth District Courts of Appeal to provide counsel to indigent clients
- Provide the Third and Fifth District Courts of Appeal with administrative services related to court appointed cases
- Publish articles to train new and experienced attorneys on legal basics and evolving areas in criminal law
- Collaborate with other criminal defense agencies and organizations to develop resources and MCLE opportunities for the criminal defense community
- Represent clients directly on appeal on a select basis

Ideal Candidate

- Has a demonstrated interest in criminal law
- Has experience researching and writing at the appellate level
- Communicates respectfully and professionally with colleagues, support staff, panel attorneys, court personnel, opposing counsel, and trial attorneys
- Has ability to manage a wide variety of projects with attention to detail and deadlines
- Is proficient with video conferencing applications (such as Zoom), and reviewing and storing documents in electronic form

CCAP is an equal opportunity employer. Starting salary will depend on experience but will be in the range of $90,000 to $112,000. Excellent benefits package and retirement plans available.

Please send a cover letter, resume, references, and two opening briefs or writs (or equivalent writing samples) no later than May 10th. Submissions accepted by email: Lsmutz@capcentral.org.
